Ex-Governor Wanted a Blue Polka-Dot in Portrait, But Could Not Get It-Contrasted With T. R.

CHICAGO, May 2.-The experience of ex-Gov. Herbert S. Hadley of Missourl, in sitting for a portrait, is told in a deposition on file in the Superior Court here to-day, where the price of the picture is in dispute. Mrs. Samantha L. Huntley was engaged to paint the portrait of the former Governor, which was to hang in the Executive Mansion in Jefferson City, Mo. The committee in charge re-

Mo. The committee in charge refused to pay the price asked and Mrs. Huntley ued and obtained a verdict for $900. A new trial was granted and the deposition of Mr. Hadley will be read at the re-hearing.

The deposition of the ex-Governor says that he criticised the portrait, telling Mrs. Huntley that the lower lip protruded so that it was almost pendulous, and that he desired her to paint the picture with a blue polkadot tie, but she insisted on having it green as he had worn that color the first day of the sitting.

"She said she could not paint the blue tie," the deposition continues.
